SUBJECT : PFIAB Session on 5 December

1. The President's Foreign Intelligence Advisory Board has scheduled a two-day session for 5-6 December. Primary focus will be on U.S. capabilities to support U.S. policy in the Middle East and Persian Gulf.

2. The DCI has been requested to provide presentations to be held in Room 340, Old EOB from 1000 to 1200 hours, and 1400 to 1600 hours on 5 December. The DCI will meet with the Board at 1115 hours on 6 December to discuss subjects of his own choosing. He has requested the IC Staff to coordinate arrangements for the sessions on both days.

3. The NIO for the Middle East and Islamic World has been given responsibility for the 5 December meetings, the morning session of which will be devoted to briefings on the current situation in the Middle East, and the afternoon session to intelligence requirements and collection capabilities in the area. Attached is a copy of the program which
